

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. You can search through the full text of this book on the web at <http://books.google.com/>

POSTAL INFORMATION.

General Directions.

Direct your mail matter to a post office, and if to a city, add the street and number of post office box of the person addressed. If you are not certain that the place to which you wish to send is a post office, inquire of the postmaster. Matter not addressed to a post office can not be forwarded. To insure certainty in dispatch of mail, give the county in which the post office is situated, and spell the name of the state in full. Write or print your name and address, and the contents if a package, upon the upper left-hand corner of all mail matter.
This will insure its immediate return to you for correction, if improperly addressed, or insufficiently paid, and if it is not called for at its destination, it can be returned to you without going to the Dead Letter Office. If a letter it will be returned free. Register all valuable letters and packages. Registry fee, eight cents, which, with the postage, must be fully prepaid.
The name and address of sender must be given on the outside of the wrapper or envelope of all registered matter.

Classes of Domestic Matter and Rates.

Domestic mail is divided into four classes, as follows:

FIRST CLASS.—Written matter, namely, letters, postal cards, post cards (private mailing cards) and all matter wholly or partly in writing, whether sealed or unsealed (except manuscript copy accompanying proof-sheets or corrected proof-sheets of the same), and all matter sealed or otherwise closed against inspection; typewriting (with carbon or letter-press copies thereof) is held to be an equivalent of handwriting and is classed as such in all cases.
Rates of postage—two cents per ounce or fraction thereof.

Postal cards, one cent each.

Private mailing cards (post cards), with written messages, conforming to the regulations prescribed by the Postmaster-general, one cent each.

On "drop" letters, two cents per ounce or fraction thereof, when mailed at letter-carriers' office, or where rural delivery service has been established; and one cent per ounce, or fraction thereof, when mailed at other offices.

SECOND CLASS.—Newspapers and publications issued at stated intervals as often as four times a year, bearing a date of issue and numbered consecutively, issued from a known office of publication, and formed of printed sheets, without board, cloth, leather or other substantial binding. Such publications must be originated and published for the dissemination of information of a public character, or devoted to literature, the sciences, art, or some special industry. They must have a legitimate list of subscribers, and must not be designed primarily for advertising purposes, or for circulation free, or at nominal rates. Rate of postage—for publishers and news agents, one cent a pound or fraction thereof. For others than publishers and news agents, one cent for each four ounces or fraction thereof.

THIRD CLASS.—Books, periodicals and matter wholly in print (not included in second class), proof-sheets, corrected proof-sheets and manuscript copy accompanying the same. Rate of postage—one cent for each two ounces or fraction thereof.

FOURTH CLASS.—Merchandise — namely, all matter not embraced in the other three classes, and which is not in its form or nature liable to destroy, deface or otherwise damage the contents of the mail bag, or harm the person of any one engaged in the postal service, and not above the weight provided by law. Rate of postage—one cent per ounce or fraction thereof; but on seeds, cuttings, roots, scions and plants, one cent for each two ounces or fraction thereof.

Limit of Weight.

A package must not exceed four pounds in weight, unless it be a single book. Second-class matter is not subject to the four-pound limitation.

Registry System.

All mailable matter, including drop letters, may be registered; but not matter addressed to fictitious names, initials or box numbers, or bearing vague and indefinite addresses. Indemnity will be paid for the value of lost domestic registered first-class mail matter, not to exceed $25 in any one case.

The registry fee is eight cents in addition to postage. It must be prepaid by stamps affixed.

Special Delivery.

By the affixing of a special delivery stamp of ten cents, in addition to the regular postage, any mail matter whatsoever will be delivered immediately after arrival to any point within the carrier limits of any free delivery office between the hours of 7 a.m. and 11 p.m., and within one mile of all other post offices between the hours of 7 a.m. and 9 p.m.

Rates of Postage to Canada, Mexico, Hawaii, Porto Rico, Island Possessions, Panama Canal Zone, Cuba, and Shanghai, China.

(The Dominion of Canada embraces all the British North American Provinces except Newfoundland.)

LETTERS AND POSTAL CARDS.—Same rates and conditions of prepayment of postage as for United States letters and postal cards.

OTHER MATTER.—Same rates and conditions of transmission as for matter for delivery within the United States, except that all sealed packages which evidently are not letters are excluded. Other matter must be so wrapped or enclosed as to permit their contents to be easily examined by postmasters or customs officials.

MEXICO.—All articles of every kind or nature which are admitted to the domestic mails of the United States are admitted under the same conditions and at the same rates to the mails of Mexico; except that articles of miscellaneous merchandise (fourth class matter) not sent as bona fide trade samples are required to be sent by "parcels post" at the rate of twelve cents per pound or fraction thereof, with a "customs declaration," properly filled out, attached to it.

Postage to Foreign Countries.

Letters, five cents per half ounce or fraction thereof (fifteen grammes being the postal equivalent of half an ounce).

Postal cards, two cents each.

Reply postal cards, four cents each.

Post cards, two cents each.

Registration fee, eight cents.

Printed matter and samples of merchandise, one cent for each two ounces or fraction thereof; limit of weight four pounds six ounces.

Permissible Writing.

No writing is permitted on third or fourth class matter, except as follows: The name and address of sender on the outside or inside of package, preceded by the word "from." On the wrapper may also be written the names and number of articles enclosed. The sender is further allowed to mark a word or passage in a book or paper to which he desires to call special attention. He may also write a simple inscription or dedication upon the cover or blank leaves of a book or pamphlet. There may be attached to articles of merchandise, by tag or label, a mark, number, name or letter, for purpose of identification. Printed circulars may contain the written name of the sender, or of the addressee, and the date. Any other writing on third or fourth class matter will subject the package to letter rates of postage, and render the sender liable to a fine of ten dollars for each offense. Printed matter may be enclosed with fourth class matter, but the whole package is subject to the rate of one cent per ounce or fraction thereof. Packages containing more than one class of postal matter will subject the whole at the rate of the highest class enclosed.

Reforwarding.

Letters will be reforwarded from one post office to another upon the written request of the person addressed without additional charge for postage; but packages of third and fourth class matter can not be forwarded or returned without new payment of postage.

Lottery Matter.

No letter or circular concerning lotteries, so-called gift concerns, or other similar enterprises offering prizes, or concerning schemes devised and intended to deceive and defraud the public, for the purpose of obtaining money under false pretences, shall be carried in the mail. "Endless chain" enterprises designed for the sale or disposition of merchandise or other things of value through the circulation or distribution of "coupons," "tickets," "certificates," "introductions," and the like, are held to embrace the elements of a lottery, and also to be fraudulent. Any person who shall knowingly deposit or send anything to be conveyed by mail in violation of this section shall be punishable by a fine of not more than five hundred dollars, nor less than one hundred dollars, with costs of prosecution.

TABLES OF AGGREGATES.

Showing the Area, Number of Assessed Polls, Registered Voters, Valuation and Tax Rate of each Town and City in the Commonwealth.

Few questions are oftener asked than how many square miles has each town and city in the Commonwealth. Strange to say, such data have never been accurately secured. The statements made here are gathered from various sources and are approximately correct. When the topographical survey of Massachusetts shall have been completed, then the list can be made up absolutely correct.

CITY AND TOWN OFFICERS.

EXPLANATION:—The towns are arranged in alphabetical order. Owing to the fact that city elections are held in December, just before the publication of this book, it is necessary for mechanical reasons to group the cities in a section immediately following the town matter, where they will be found also in alphabetical order.

Population figures are based on State Census of 1905.

The presiding officer in lists of Boards and Committees is designated by the letters "ch." after the name.

Unless otherwise mentioned the post office address of all parties is that of the town name itself.

The various signs following names of villages are explained as follows: Δ, Post Office; ○, Telegraph Station; □, Railroad Station; ×, Express Office.

Abbreviations for Express Companies are as follows: Ad, Adams; Am, American; BL, Boston Local; E&P, Earle & Prew; N, National; NYB, New York & Boston.

BARNSTABLE COUNTY.

Incorporated June 2, 1885. Comprises 15 towns:

Barnstable	Eastham	Provincetown
Bourne	Falmouth	Sandwich
Brewster	Harwich	Truro
Chatham	Mashpee	Wellfleet
Dennis	Orleans	Yarmouth

Barnstable is the county seat, and contains a court house and county jail. The Plymouth Division of the New York, New Haven & Hartford R. R. passes through nearly every town, having its terminus at Provincetown, with branches from Buzzards Bay to Wood's Hole on the southwest, from Yarmouth to Hyannis on the south, and from Harwich to Chatham on the southeast. The agricultural products are much below those of other counties, owing to the sandy nature of the soil. There are no rivers of importance, but there are many large and beautiful ponds. Scrub oak and yellow pine compose the principal timber growth, extensive tracts of the latter having been planted, so that there are now many thrifty young forests. Sea and shore fisheries, cranberry culture and the entertaining of summer visitors can be said to form the chief occupation of the people. Population by U. S. census 1900, 27,826; State census 1905, 26,831. Area, 444 square miles. Valuation 1906, $27,158,050.

Berkshire County was named from Berkshire, England. It occupies the extreme western end of the State, extending from Connecticut on the south to Vermont on the north. The Taconic and Green Mountain ranges extend through the county from north to south, presenting many scenes of wild and picturesque beauty. Greylock, in Adams, 3505 feet, the highest elevation in the State, has been set apart as a public reservation. The county is drained by the Hoosac, Housatonic, Westfield and Deerfield Rivers, which, with their various tributaries, afford many water powers. The valleys through which these rivers run are very fertile. The county is traversed by the Boston & Albany Division of the New York Central & Hudson River R. R., with a branch from Pittsfield to North Adams; the Berkshire Division of the New York, New Haven & Hartford R. R., and the Fitchburg Division of the Boston & Maine R. R., this line passing through the Hoosac Tunnel, nearly five miles in length, constructed by the State at an expense of nearly $27,000,000, and opened in 1875. It was considered one of the greatest engineering feats of the century. Manufacturing is the chief industry. Pittsfield is the county seat and has a court house and jail. There are three registries of deeds, the Northern District at Adams comprising the towns of Adams, Cheshire, Clarksburg, Florida, Hancock, Lanesboro, New Ashford, North Adams, Savoy, Williamstown and Windsor; the Middle District, at Pittsfield, the towns of Becket, Dalton, Hinsdale, Lee, Lenox, Otis, Peru, Pittsfield, Richmond, Stockbridge, Tyringham and Washington; and the Southern District, at Great Barrington, the towns of Alford, Egremont, Great Barrington, Monterey, Mount Washington, New Marlboro, Sandisfield, Sheffield and West Stockbridge. Situated in the northeastern part of the State, adjoining the New Hampshire line, the county is very irregular in shape, as a glance at the map will show. Outside of Suffolk (Boston) this is the largest county in the State in point of population, and has within its borders more cities than any other county. The Boston & Maine, with its various lines, the New York, New Haven & Hartford R. R., and the Boston & Albany Division of the New York Central & Hudson River R. R. cover the county as with a network, so that hardly a town is without one or more roads passing through it. There is a great deal of excellent farming land, and the greenhouse and market gardening industries reach large proportions. The manufacturing establishments are the most extensive in the State, and furnish employment to many thousands of the inhabitants. Cambridge (East) and Lowell are the county seats, and in each are a court house and jail. A county truant school is located at North Chelmsford. The registry of deeds for the Northern District is at Lowell, and embraces the towns of Billerica, Carlisle, Chelmsford, Dracut, Dunstable, Lowell, Tewksbury, Tyngsboro, Westford and Wilmington. The Southern District registry is at Cambridge and serves the towns of Acton, Arlington, Ashby, Ashland, Ayer, Bedford, Belmont, Boxboro, Burlington, Cambridge, Concord, Everett, Framingham, Groton, Holliston, Hopkinton, Hudson, Lexington, Lincoln, Littleton, Malden, Marlboro, Maynard, Medford, Melrose, Natick, Newton, North Reading, Pepperell, Reading, Sherborn, Shirley, Somerville, Stoneham, Stow, Sudbury, Townsend, Wakefield, Waltham, Watertown, Wayland, Weston, Winchester and Woburn. Situated in the southeastern part of the State, having a sea-coast on Massachusetts Bay on the east, another on Buzzards Bay at the south, and a smaller extent on Boston Harbor. Its extreme length from north to south is 47 miles, with an average breadth of 20 miles. The Plymouth Division of the New York, New Haven & Hartford R. R. penetrates every town in the county except Pembroke and Norwell. The surface is level and there are no rivers of note, though numerous lakes and ponds break the monotony. Much of the district is still heavily wooded. The soil is light and sandy and inferior for cultivation. Cranberries and small fruits are extensively raised. Manufacturing is the chief industry. Plymouth being a part of the original Plymouth Colony, its history dates from the landing of the Pilgrims in 1620. The town of Plymouth is much resorted to by sight-seers, and has valuable collections of historical articles. It is the county seat. The population of the county by U. S. census of 1900, 113,985; State census 1905, 127,932. Area, 704 square miles. Valuation 1906, $98,380,189.

SUFFOLK COUNTY.

Incorporated May 10, 1643. Comprises 2 towns and 2 cities:

BOSTON
CHELSEA

Revere
Winthrop

Originally the county included the towns of Boston, Roxbury, Dorchester, Dedham, Braintree, Weymouth, Hingham and Hull. It now includes only the cities of Boston and Chelsea, and the towns of Revere and Winthrop, as before stated. Boston is the court town, and the City Treasurer of Boston acts also as Treasurer of the county, while the Board of Aldermen are the County Commissioners, though the towns of Revere and Winthrop are placed under the jurisdiction of the commissioners of Middlesex County. The State and county courts are held in the fine building in Pemberton Square. The United States Circuit and District Courts are held in the Federal Building in the square bounded by Devonshire, Water, Congress and Milk Streets. Boston, besides being the capital of the State, abounds in buildings and places of historic interest too numerous to mention here. The remodeled State House on Beacon Street, with its extensive additions, is admirably adapted for its purpose, and is the pride not only of the citizens of Boston, but of the Commonwealth. Few places in the country can boast of handsomer or more costly public and mercantile buildings, and the city is certainly foremost in the number of religious, educational, philanthropic and charitable institutions devoted to the interests of the people. The railroads entering Boston are centered in two stations, the various lines of the Boston & Maine R. R. using the Union Station, or North Station, as it is sometimes designated, on Causeway Street, and the New York, New Haven & Hartford lines and the Boston & Albany Division of the New York Central & Hudson River R. R. using the South Station, or South Terminal, at Dewey Square, junction Summer and Federal Streets and Atlantic Avenue. The two stations are about one mile apart, and are connected by the elevated and surface street railways, as are also the various wharves of coastwise steamship lines. Ocean-going steamers depart from wharves at Charlestown, also at East Boston, which is reached by ferry lines and the East Boston tunnel from Boston proper. The Suffolk County truant school is at West Roxbury. The population of Suffolk County by the U. S. census of 1900, 611,417; State census 1905, 652,362. Area, 48 square miles. Valuation 1906, $1,338,295,509.

County Commissioners—In the city of Boston the Board of Aldermen have all the powers and duties of County Commissioners, except in relation to trials by jury and recovery of damages in such trials, in cases of laying out and discontinuing highways, and appeals from assessors for abatement of taxes

Treasurer—Charles H. Slattery (D) $800 as county treasurer; also treasurer of the city of Boston

Occupying the middle section of the State, it extends from Vermont and New Hampshire on the north to Connecticut and Rhode Island on the south; it touches Franklin, Hampshire and Hampden Counties on the west, and Middlesex and Norfolk on the east. The surface of the land is undulating and in many parts broken. Mt. Wachusett in Princeton is the highest elevation, 2018 feet; it has been purchased and set apart as a State reservation. The Nashua River drains the northeastern, the Blackstone the southeastern, the French and Quinebaug flowing into the Thames, and the Chicopee flowing into the Connecticut, the southwestern and middle west; while the Miller's River drains the northwestern section. These streams furnish a vast amount of motive power, which is used for manufacturing purposes. The largest lakes are Quinsigamond in Worcester and Shrewsbury, and the Wachusett Reservoir in the towns of Clinton, Boylston and West Boylston, though there are numerous smaller ponds and reservoirs used largely for storage purposes. In the variety and extent of its manufactures, Worcester County stands near the head, not only in Massachusetts, but the Union, at the same time being one of the richest agricultural counties in the State, and in fact one of the richest in the United States in value of products raised. The Boston & Maine, the New York, New Haven & Hartford, and the Boston & Albany Division of the New York Central & Hudson River R. R. make accessible nearly every town in the county, and the larger places are connected by electric street railways. Worcester and Fitchburg are the county seats, and each has a court house and jail. A county truant school is located in Oakdale in the town of West Boylston. The registry of deeds for the Northern District is at Fitchburg, and includes the towns of Ashburnham, Fitchburg, Leominster, Lunenburg and Westminster; the Worcester District includes the towns of Athol, Auburn, Barre, Berlin, Blackstone, Bolton, Boylston, Brookfield, Charlton, Clinton, Dana, Douglas, Dudley, Gardner, Grafton, Hardwick, Harvard, Holden, Hopedale, Hubbardston, Lancaster, Leicester, Mendon, Milford, Millbury, New Braintree, Northboro, Northbridge, North Brookfield, Oakham, Oxford, Paxton, Petersham, Phillipston, Princeton, Royalston, Rutland, Shrewsbury, Southboro, Southbridge, Spencer,
